Disability Discrimination Policy

Introduction:

CWLC Ltd consists of the following companies.

- Bona Fide Site Services Ltd (Trading as CWLC)
- Yeti Partnerships Ltd (Trading as CWLC)

The company is a private Training Provider who deliver a range of apprenticeships, nationally accredited qualifications and a selection of short accredited courses. The company are committed to providing a curriculum to develop a learner's skills, increase their knowledge and in return become a great asset to an organisation.

The company is committed to being an Equal Opportunities Employer and Provider of Training in accordance with the Equality Act 2010 – 'legally protects people from discrimination in the workplace and in wider society. It replaces previous anti-discrimination laws with a single Act, making the law easier to understand and strengthening protection in certain situations.'

1. POLICY

CWLC fully supports the principle of equal opportunities in employment and opposes all forms of unlawful or unfair discrimination on the grounds of disability. No applicant or employee shall receive less favourable treatment because of disability.

It is in the interest of CWLC and those who work for it to ensure that all available human resource talents and skills are considered when employment opportunities arise.

CWLC is committed to maintaining and managing a diverse work force.

2. PURPOSE

To ensure that CWLC complies with the Equality Act 2010 (which replaces the Disability Discrimination Act 1995) and to ensure that disabled people falling within the definition of the Act are treated equally and fairly.

To ensure we recruit and retain the best people for CWLC.

3. SCOPE

The Disability Discrimination Policy covers all staff and job applicants. This also covers employees who become disabled during their employment. Where relevant it also covers staff employed by outside agencies working on CWLC's premises.

4. POLICY GUIDELINES

Recruitment, training and promotion are carried out in line with CWLC Codes of Practice. Clear job descriptions and person specifications are used (where appropriate) to enhance objective assessments and to ensure that decisions are made solely on objective and job-related criteria.

CWLC will endeavour to give training and guidance to all relevant Staff, to ensure that the risk of possible discriminatory attitudes affecting decisions are minimised and that there is an understanding of the relevant provisions of the Equality Act 2010.

CWLC operates a Grievance Procedure to enable grievances, including those relating to unfair discrimination on grounds of disability, to be formally heard.

All reasonable and necessary changes will be investigated, and any justified changes will be made to the workplace and to employment arrangements so that disabled people are not at any substantial disadvantage compared to non-disabled people. This covers all areas of employment, including recruitment, promotion and training.

In recruitment and selection, CWLC will modify selection techniques, where appropriate, and make any other reasonable changes to ensure that disabled people can be considered equally with non-disabled candidates.

CWLC will ensure that disabled people will receive equal treatment in training and development, and, where appropriate, will supply additional training.

A flexible approach will be adopted and, where possible and justified, consideration to reallocation of duties, time off for rehabilitation, assessment or treatment or other appropriate measures to ensure equal opportunity.

Every endeavour will be made to ensure that contract workers are not discriminated against because of their disability and will ensure that any contract workers and other agencies that may be used are aware of this policy.

CWLC actively encourages promotion of this policy in its internal and external recruitment by ensuring that advertisements, job descriptions and person specifications do not discriminate. We welcome applications from disabled people. CWLC will ensure that all new employees are aware of this policy as part of their induction and will regularly review and monitor this policy to ensure its implementation and effectiveness.
